

ECHOSTAR

CONNECTING THE WORLD.

Hughes hits the 1 million mark for broadband customers

2015

EchoStar slated to launch 5 new satellites
2016 and Beyond

Sling TV service launched using the Move Networks platform

2015

HUGHES

Acquired Hughes Network Systems, a global leader in satellite broadband solutions

2013

EchoStar Mobile
Acquired Solaris Mobile, a European mobile operator, renamed in 2014 to EchoStar Mobile Limited

2011

2010

move networks
Acquired Move Networks, the leader in adaptive bit-rate video streaming technology

Michael Dugan became CEO of EchoStar Corporation

2009

Partnered with Dish Mexico for direct-to-home satellite TV service

2008

Acquired the Gilbert, AZ Digital Broadcast Center

1998

DISH 500 increased channel access from a single DISH antenna

1999

First TV-industry company to reach milestone of 1 million DVRs

2001

Satellite Operations Center (SOC) became operational, assuming control of EchoStar III

2003

2007

Acquired Sling Media, the leader in TV Anywhere placeshifting technology

2008

Combined companies, EchoStar and DISH Network, split into two separate entities

1996

First DISH Network broadcast was delivered to customers from the Cheyenne, WY Digital Broadcast Center

EchoStar acquired Houston Tracker Systems

1986

1994

Construction began on the Cheyenne, WY Digital Broadcast Center

1980

EchoStar was founded by Charlie Ergen, Candy Ergen and Jim DeFranco as a national C-band satellite TV equipment distributor

Launched our first digital high-powered satellite, EchoStar I

